

KRISTIN POLAKOFF, MS, PA-C

2 Tampa General Circle, 4th floor, Tampa, FL 33606

EDUCATION

Master of Physician Assistant Studies - Shenandoah University – December 2023

Master of Public Health - Shenandoah University – July 2019 - Present

Master of Biological Sciences - University of Houston – May 2012

Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences - Louisiana State University – May 2010

LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION

NCCPA Board Certified - December 2023

Advanced Cardiac Life Support

Basic Life Support

CLINICAL WORK EXPERIENCE

University of South Florida College of Medicine

Tampa, FL

June 2025 - Present

Faculty I; Physician Assistant

- Provide timely evaluation and management of inpatient and emergency room consults
- Assist with preparing patients for surgery and postoperative care
- Assist with inpatient rounding to maintain continuity of care, enhancing patient safety through thorough and consistent evaluations
- Coordinate post-operative care and follow up instructions to facilitate patient discharge
- Provide support to the residency program while maintaining educational opportunities for residents
- Serve as first assist in surgeries as needed
- Participate in outpatient surgeries as needed
- Participate in the teaching of medical and PA students, as well as medical residents and other health professionals
- Engage in research and scholarly activities
- Participate in clinical and educational objectives required for licensure, certification and credentialing

Perich Eye Center

New Port Richey, FL

July 2024 – October 2024

Physician Assistant

Capital Women's Care

Washington, DC

August 2016 – May 2019

Medical Assistant

WORK EXPERIENCE

Henkel

Los Angeles, CA

October 2013 – January 2017

Regulatory Affairs Manager

Experien Health Sciences
Houston, TX
November 2010 – May 2013

Consulting Scientist

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

American Academy of Physician Assistants
American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology
Florida Academy of Physician Assistants
Academy of Physician Assistants in Obstetrics and Gynecology