DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

List the position’s essential duties and responsibilities. Refer to CHR’s Position Description webpage for additional information on developing a position description.

- Description: Group similar duties into 4 to 6 major functions.
  - A Function is a group of duties that constitute one of the distinct and major activities of the position.
  - A Duty is a detailed description of a distinct activity that is a logical, essential step in the performance of a function and includes what work is done (action); how the work is done (procedures, materials, tools or equipment); and why the work is done (purpose).
- Essential or Marginal (E or M): Identify whether the function and duties are:
  - An Essential function is critical to performing the job. The position would not exist without these regular, fundamental responsibilities.
  - A Marginal function is important, but not critical.
- % Time: Indicate the approximate percentage of time spent performing each duty, on average, as the work is performed over a 12-month period. Total percentages must equal 100%. The last 5% of the duties and responsibilities may be “Performs other duties as assigned” to capture the normal variations in work.
- Be objective and accurate. Write the duties so that any reader will be able to understand the position’s role.
